
Seventy-Seven Days of Mercy

Day Nine

“In short, we are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us. Pardoning offenses becomes the clearest expression of merciful love, and for us Christians it is an imperative from which we cannot excuse ourselves.”

Pope Francis
